Bicentennial Print

Renowned Texas history artist Gary Crouch has produced the first collectible for the Texas Ranger Bicentennial™ in 2023. Licensed by the Texas Ranger Hall of Fame, the prints are illustrated with badges, firearms, and historic images from the collections of the Texas Ranger Hall of Fame. This print focuses on the Old West, evoking the Ranging companies and Frontier Battalion. The 24" x 30" prints are signed by the artist.

$45.00 + Tax, unframed

Texas State Rifle Association Calendar

Celebrating their 100th anniversary next year, the Texas State Rifle Association and the TRHFM have partnered together to create this collectible calendar featuring firearms and artifacts from the Museum collections. It was distributed to 35,000 TSRA members, and is now available for sale in the gift shop while quantities last .

TEXAS RANGER
HALL OF FAME & MUSEUM

About The Texas Ranger Hall Of Fame And Museum

Texas Rangers have protected the people of Texas through three centuries and under five flags. Their legacy is one of integrity, perseverance and service that has inspired generations worldwide. The Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum in Waco is privileged to be the official historical center of the Texas Rangers. It is sanctioned by the State of Texas and sponsored and operated by the City of Waco. Its mission is to share our unique heritage and preserve it for future generations.

Founded in 1964, the museum preserves a growing collection of approximately 20,000 artifacts, works of art and an official archives and library of the service. The collections span three centuries, from the creation of the Rangers in 1823 to the present. They include clothing, badges, firearms, and forensic investigation equipment. The art collections include historic and modern paintings, sculpture and folk art relevant to the Texas Rangers and Texas. Visit us at <https://www.texasranger.org/>
